Graduation Day
for an America
Still at Peace
Thought for Today
I remember my youth and the feeling that will never come back anymore—the feeling that I could last forever, outlast the sea, the earth, and all men.—Joseph Conrad

This is graduation week for high school students.
It is a milestone in the lives of the young, the point at which their community feels they have come of age. And so they have. Whether they go on to college or find jobs in the business world they have already put behind them the main chore of youth—getting a good basic education.

It is a confusing world that the 1954 crop of youngsters find themselves being graduated into. Their fathers fought in World War I. Their older brothers fought in World War II. And with these successive shocks some Americans are so disillusioned they profess to believe World War III is just around the corner.

But there's no percentage in being a cynic. A cynic is merely a fellow using older's words to express the childish wail, "Why was I ever born?"

There are people in this world truly miserable and full of despair. They don't live in America. In America the young go to school, finally are graduated, and have the best chance for peace and happiness of any people on earth.

Your editor has lived through two wars. He was a new high school graduate himself when called up in World War I the summer of 1918. So the speculations and evil omens of 1954 are not new to the older generation. And it's a fair report to tell this year's graduates that America will probably work out of today's crisis about as well as she has done in the past.

Assuming, of course, that the men and women of tomorrow show the same self-reliance and determination and independence as their ancestors. Which they will. Because the whole point of education is to make youth aware of its responsibilities—upon entering the adult world.

It is used to be fashionable for visiting speakers to tell the young graduates, "This generation has made a mess of things—your generation will do a better job."

We don't say that any more. Because the first statement is too obvious, and the second too uncertain.

This isn't a contest to see who's the best man, or which is the best generation. It will be success enough if the 1954 graduate turns out to be a dependable, self-supporting citizen, loyal to the core in defense of America against her enemies abroad and at home.

Our country has been on too many excursions, spread its bread fruitlessly on foreign waters, until today we are more concerned with maintaining our safety than advancing either our word or our flag.

This is a new and starkly grim outlook for the youth of America. But it will make cautious men and women of them—and informed caution will lead our country out of the wilderness in time to come. May the new generation be that time.

Customs at Panama Search French Ship

PANAMA (AP)—Tensions increased in jittery Central American today as U. S. customs inspectors at the Atlantic mouth of the Panama Canal ransacked the cargo of a French freighter—presumably for contraband arms.

An agent of the French Line at Cristobal said a search of its 8193-ton freighter Wyoming began last night "in connection with the business in Guatemala." He obviously referred to U. S. charges that leftist Guatemala recently received a large arms shipment from behind the Iron Curtain. Guatemala is one of the Wyoming's ports of call.

The agent declared, however, "There are no arms or contraband aboard." He said the ship carried only general cargo.

The Wyoming had been due to route through the canal today en route to El Salvador, Guatemala, Los Angeles, San Francisco and Vancouver, B. C. But officials indicated she would not be ready to leave on schedule.

U. S. State Department officials said in Washington the ship was being searched to determine whether customs regulations have been violated. The officials stressed that no suspicion had arisen with respect to the French Line itself.

They said both the line and the French government were cooperating in the inspection. This left the question whether the manifest might have been falsified.

The State Department announcement said: "The ship's manifest reflects a miscellaneous cargo comprised principally of machinery."

Included are five boxes of sporting arms, but it is understood that a question is being raised about the question of whether the arms were for the defense of the French government.

AP&L to Seek $4 Million Rate Increase

By TOM DYCARD

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Arkansas Power & Light Co. announced today it will ask the state Public Service Commission for a rate raise totaling almost four million dollars a year.

The higher rates will affect 282,000 customers in Arkansas. It is the first time AP&L has asked for a rate hike since it was organized in 1926.

Since 1926, there have been 13 rate decreases, including two refunds to customers. R. E. Ritchie, president of the utility board of directors, told newsmen this morning.

Ritchie said the present rates were based on operating costs in 1943 and 1944. Ritchie also said that expanded facilities and higher construction costs have increased AP&L's investment in distribution facilities from $107.10 per customer in 1943 to $341.30 per customer in 1953.

The new rates will go into effect in bills going out to customers July 1.

If the higher rates are allowed to stand 30 days without being suspended by the PSC, a hearing on the increase will not be necessary. The company will not have to put up a bond to cover the higher rates unless the PSC suspends the increase.

City Studies Insurance Problems

In a special session yesterday Hope City Council discussed increasing insurance on Municipal Water and Light Plant from $100,000 to a half million dollars and called in an expert to go over the insurance proposal.

The new proposed policy would cover all new installations which the plant has made within the past few months.

In regard to employee insurance the council has decided to study a plan whereby the city will carry its own insurance.

Rebels Lash French Along Riverfront

By LARRY ALLEN

HANOI, Indochina (AP)—A "Little Dien Bien Phu battle" was shaping up today in the vital Red River Delta just 30 miles south of this war capital for the French Union forces.

The French high command announced thousands of Communist-led Vietnamese regular troops were besieging the post of Yen Phu guarding the gateway into the big rice marketing and road junction town of Phu Ly.

As at Dien Bien Phu, the rebels after each heavy barrage of fire burrowed a tediously closer in feverish dug trenches. The Vietnamese, estimated in a strength of 12 battalions, have kept Yen Phu encircled for a fortnight.

Like Dien Bien Phu, it is being supplied solely by air. French fighters and bombers are hitting heavily at the Vietnamese in the trenches and their bases in the nearby hills.

That Yearning to Visit Old Friends Late in Life Somehow Fades When the Time Comes

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Two weeks ago my mother wrote me she wanted to make "a last visit" to those close to her heart who live far away.

Although she came all alone to this country from Ireland as a slender girl of 16, Mama—as she herself says is no longer "the same spring chicken." She is 66, quite stout, and though summer still rules her heart, she feels a twinge of late autumn in her legs.

I phoned the old family home in Kansas City and asked whether if I came out to get her, she would fly back with me.

Mama, who had never been up in an airplane, hesitated only a moment, then said cheerfully: "Sure, what have I got to lose? I'll go anywhere with you except on a department store nervous."

"What is all this last visit talk? You're like Sarah Bernhardt! You're like Sarah Bernhardt! You're like Sarah Bernhardt!"

Memorial Day Observance Planned Here

A Memorial Day ceremony will be held Sunday at 2:00 p. m., at the World War monument on the east lawn of the Hempstead County Courthouse. Judge James H. Pilkinton will deliver the principal address honoring the dead of World War I, World War II, and the Korean War. This program is sponsored jointly by Ramsey-Cargile Post No. 4511, Veterans of Foreign Wars Ray Allen, Commander—and Leslie Huddleston Post No. 12, American Legion—Fred Johnson, Commander.

Those desiring to do so are urged to bring flowers to place at the foot of the monument. Relatives and friends of deceased veterans are particularly requested to be present. The general public is cordially invited.

Jets Taking Trip Over Nicaragua

By United Press

Three 10-engine American atomic bombers roared out of the darkness at Fort Worth, Tex., today on an unprecedented "good will" flight over Nicaragua, next-door neighbor of Communist-influenced Guatemala.

Brig Gen John D. Ryan, commander of the 19th Air Division, took off in the lead plane from Carswell Air Force Base at 2:15 a. m. (EDT) and the other two super-bombers followed at eight-minute intervals.

The non-stop trip was expected to last about 17½ hours, giving the B-36's at least 30 minutes in Nicaraguan skies. They will not land.

Defense Department spokesmen said officially the flight was a good will mission in observance of Nicaraguan army day, made at the request of the Central American government. The United States payed before had received such a request from a foreign government on the occasion of a state holiday.

The flight was ordered only a few days after the United States had airlifted a small amount of arms and ammunition to Nicaragua and Honduras after Guatemala received 2,000 tons of war-making material from European Communists.

Guatemalan exiles in Mexico City reported last night that in an addition to the widely-publicized Iron Curtain arms shipment, Guatemala also received five Soviet-built MIG-15 jet fighters, accompanied by "European-type" aviators from an unidentified garbush.

Pine Bluff Makes No Integration Plans

PINE BLUFF (AP)—The Pine Bluff school board, at an unusual meeting, voted yesterday to take no steps toward integrating Negro and white students during the 1954-55 term.

The decision was announced in a prepared statement handed out by the board president, Gordon E. Young. Young did not reveal any details of the discussion other than to say that the final decision was unanimous.

Young said that the U. S. Supreme Court will not have fixed the procedures to be followed in integration by the time the next term opens and that, until such procedures are set, the board would take no action.

He promised that the board would consult with "representative citizens" of both races before taking any steps towards integration.

Woman Held in Fatal Shooting of Hope Man

TEXARKANA, Tex. (AP)—An Arkansas man was shot to death at a Texas farm house southwest of here last night and a 41-year-old housewife today was charged with first degree murder in the shooting.

Bowie County District Attorney Bun Hutchinson said he filed the charge against Mrs. W. G. Jackson. He said the woman admitted killing Sidney Reasoner, 46, of Hope, Ark., but claimed she shot him in self defense.

The district attorney said Mrs. Jackson gave this account of the slaying: Reasoner, a close friend of her first husband, George Milton, attempted to persuade her to leave Jackson and return to Milton. When she refused, said Reasoner told her: "You should be paid for what you did to George and I'm going to kill you."

Hutchinson said Mrs. Jackson told him that she then shot Reasoner with a .420 gauge shotgun. Reasoner's body was found in the front yard of the Jackson home. Mrs. Jackson's husband, a railroad man, was away from home at the time of the shooting, Hutchinson said.

Navy Disaster in Which 91 Died Probed

QUONSET POINT (AP)—The word "catastrophe" leaped up today in eyewitness accounts of the horrible disaster which killed at least 91 men and injured 201 yesterday on the aircraft carrier Bennington.

And the catapult room of the big ship may come under investigation after the Navy board of inquiry meets for the first time at 1:30 p. m. (EDT) at this naval air base.

Last October, 37 men died in an explosion on the carrier Leyte as she was being overhauled at Boston. A naval board of inquiry concluded that the blast happened when someone accidentally ignited oil in a catapult tube.

In explaining the location of the explosions and fire which shook the Bennington while she was 75 miles offshore her skipper, Capt. William F. Raborn Jr., of Oklahoma City, said the damaged area was below the third deck, that damage was done to the No. 1 fire room, the port catapult room and the living quarters of the general service crew.

John Wallam of Pittsburgh, a gunnery officer aboard the Bennington, said the blast smashed him with such startle it snatched his watch on the bulkhead.

"As soon as I was awake," he said, "I heard a funny noise coming from the pumps that operate the catapults. They usually sound like some sort of vacuum cleaner, but now they sounded like a motor was running hot and out of control very much louder than usual."

Wallam said he hit the deck just as he heard a dull boom echo throughout the ship. When he reached the second deck, he added, the lights were out and there was heavy oil smoke everywhere.

Capt. Raborn explained: "We had just completed launching 29 jets and were standing by to launch the 40th propeller planes on the deck when I spotted the puff of smoke coming from the starboard side of the flightdeck. This was followed by a minor explosion the shock on which was felt only in the forward quarters."

"Then came the major explosion which caused the ship to shake."

The 32,000-ton carrier, a proud bearer of numerous battle honors in World War II, was rocked by the disaster early yesterday off New England.

A violent blast on the second or third deck below the flight deck was followed by searing flames which roared through many forward compartments. Then came at least one more explosion.

"Scores were trapped in a sleeping quarters. Many suffocated. Many perished in the flames."

The disaster, one of the worst in peacetime U. S. naval history, was the second aboard a carrier in New England waters in less than a year. Last October, 37 died in an explosion and fire on the carrier Leyte while she was docked in Boston.

A four-man court of inquiry, headed by Rear Adm. John H. Hoskins, commandant of the Quonset Naval Air Station, was named to begin investigating today.

Secretary of the Navy Charles S. Thomas, who flew to Quonset for a quick inspection, and Capt. William F. Raborn, Jr., Bennington skipper for only a month, said there was no indication of sabotage.

French Present New Plan for Shooting Truce

GENEVA (UP)—France today put forward a new, five-point Indochina peace plan calling for an immediate end to the shooting in the Indochina peninsula.

The French blueprint a modification of one submitted by the Communists was submitted by French Foreign Minister Georges Bidault at the start of today's 10th secret session of the peace talks.

In addition to an immediate cease-fire, French sources said, Bidault's plan calls for a meeting next week of military representatives of the two opposing sides. Indochina to a man zones into, which rival armies in Vietnam, the largest of Indochina's three associated states, could be withdrawn and regrouped.

Bidault proposed that the nine nation conference continue its negotiations on a settlement for the other two states Laos and Cambodia where the regrouping principle would not apply.

A third point was said to specify that regrouping of rival forces in Vietnam should not involve partition of that most important of Indochina's three states.

Four Climbing to Rescue on Mt McKinley

FAIRBANKS, Alaska (AP)—Four men inched their way up Mt. McKinley's treacherous southern buttress today in a desperate attempt to save a mountain climber who was left gravely injured in a lonely, cold tent last Sunday.

The man in the tent is George Argus, one of three survivors of a 1,000-foot fall May 15 which killed the fourth member of their party, George Thayer, 27, Readsboro, Vt.

The rescue party is led by Dr. John McCall, 31-year-old University of Alaska glaciologist. With him are three crack mountain climbers from the Army indoctrination center at Big Delta, Alaska.

They were carried to the 5,000-foot level by an Air Force helicopter early yesterday. Strong winds and blowing snow blocked attempts to add more men to the party so the four started toward the two-mile-high spot where Argus lay.

Morton Wood and Leslie Vrecek, who were found in McKinley Park Tuesday just as a search was about to be started told of the fall.

Probers Told Reds Are in Armed Forces

By MILTON MAGRUDER

WASHINGTON (UP)—A former Communist told Senate investigators a year ago that more than 1,000 Reds had infiltrated the U. S. Armed forces to engage in sabotage, espionage and other "disruptive activities" in case of war with Russia.

He said several hundred more were in the National Guard or Reserve Officers Corps.

A seven-page memorandum prepared by ex-Communist Paul Crouch, now an immigration service consultant, was introduced at the Army-McCarthy hearings today.

Roy M. Cohn brought it out into public while relating events that led to the controversial inquiry at the Ft. Monmouth N. J. radar laboratory by Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy.

Miss Henry's Post on Board Filled

LITTLE ROCK (UP)—Gov. Francis Cherry has announced four more appointments to state boards, and one resignation from the Arkansas board of education.

Zack McClendon, Monticello, was named to the board of trustees of Arkansas A. & M. College; W. H. Elter, Washington, was appointed to the state commemorative commission; Mrs. R. C. Rickinson, Horatio, to the Arkansas Cancer Commission, and M. G. Young, Carlisle, to the board of education.

Cherry announced the resignation of Miss Beryl Henry, Hope, to enter welfare development work.

Man Wanted in Slaying is Caught

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—The FBI announced today the arrest in Philadelphia, Pa., of a man wanted for questioning in the slaying of Neil W. Vernon of Shreveport.

H. C. Boswell, special agent in charge of the FBI office here, identified the man held as Mario Joseph Papini, 29, of Philadelphia, and said Papini had used the aliases "Johnny Rocco" and "Duke".

The FBI announcement said Papini had been charged in a federal complaint filed in Shreveport with interstate transportation of a car stolen from Vernon.

Vernon's body was found May 22 about 20 miles south of Fort Smith, Arkansas. He had been shot through the head. His abandoned car had been found two days earlier in Fort Smith.

Boswell said Papini's arrest followed an investigation in Shreveport.

The FBI agent said Papini would be given a hearing in Philadelphia today and that a $10,000 bond had been recommended in the stolen car charge.

Old Union Wins in Dock Balloting

NEW YORK (AP)—The old International Longshoremen's union has won an indecisive margin over its AFL rival in a National Labor Relations Board election and the final result hinges on challenged ballots.

The situation today is about the same as it was five months ago when the racket-tainted ILA had a vote edge over the newly formed AFL-ILA.

That NLRB election was scrapped because ILA adherents employed strong-arm tactics and intimidated at the polls, with threats and bloodshed generating terror on the waterfront.

In yesterday's play the part of most everybody played the part of a perfect policeman. Heavy details of police, 2,500 on special duty in New York City and about 600 others on the New Jersey side of the port, had little to do.

NLRB Regional Director Charles T. Douds said the election was the "most orderly" he had ever seen.

All Around the Town

By The Star Staff

Mayor John L. Wilson said this morning that within the next few months he will start studying a plan to create a commission separate from the council to run affairs of the Water and Light plant. The first step will be a group to inspect the setup at Jonesboro which also owns its electrical plant.

Mayor Wilson said the local plant would start its new turbine for the first time next Wednesday. Completion of the new installation at the plant is expected sometime around July 15 at which time the plant will hold openhouse.

McClellan Hurls Charges at Sen. McCarthy

By RAYMOND LAHR and HERBERT FOSTER

WASHINGTON (UP)—Sen. John L. McClellan (D-Ark.) today accused Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy of receiving "secret information" through "criminal means" and said both McCarthy and the donor are guilty of "a crime."

McClellan made the charge in a heated exchange with McCarthy over documents in possession of McCarthy's investigating subcommittee.

The blow-up came in the 22nd day of hearings on the Army-McCarthy dispute when McClellan demanded full information about some confidential papers in the files of the subcommittee of which he is a member.

McClellan said he would not give McCarthy any information about confidential informants. He said McClellan has said he would identify them publicly. McClellan said he would not.

McClellan referred to new stories quoting McClellan on the controversial 2½ page "FBI letter" which the Wisconsin Republican had intercepted "into" the hearings earlier.

McClellan was quoted as saying both McCarthy and the informant who supplied the information, who has been identified by McCarthy only as a young officer, Army intelligence—were guilty of crimes.

"I repeat that statement," McClellan said, "I do not believe I can receive classified information obtained through criminal means without being guilty of a crime."

"If any administration official indicates to me that they are going to give me information which I can use to advance my political career, I will not accept it," McClellan said, "I will not accept it."

The Senate committee and counsel, was sitting in the open hearing room for the McCarthy trial.

Cohn had referred to a document on Communist infiltration of the Army which the subcommittee staff received in March 1953.

McClellan cut in to ask for the document.

Cohn said he was reluctant to discuss the report or say who prepared it.

When McClellan insisted he had the right to know as a subcommittee member, the subcommittee took a recess to allow Cohn to consult with McCarthy.

The recess, ordered for minutes, stretched out to 20 minutes. McCarthy and Cohn went to senator's office. McCarthy eventually identified the author of the memorandum on Communist infiltration of the Army as Paul Crouch, an admitted former Communist leader.

Cohn testified that Crouch, now a consultant to the U. S. Immigration Service, has resided in numerous trials and investigations of alleged Communists.

Crouch once was convicted of subversive activities while in the Army.

The late McClellan said Cohn, McClellan said, "I do not believe I can receive classified information obtained through criminal means without being guilty of a crime."

NEW YORK STOCKS

NEW YORK (U)—The Stock Market stepped ahead briskly today and then in the early afternoon backed down from its best undelight profit-taking.

Yesterday the market went to new highs, and that action brought on selling to cash in on profits today.

Gains went to around a point at the best. Losses were not numerous and almost all were fractional. The steels and aircrafts were in demand in early trading along with the motors and non-ferrous metals. In later trading, however, the steels and motors turned mixed, their aircrafts' back down from their best while the non-ferrous metals held around their best.

Navy Disaster

Raborn, from Oklahoma City, said the cause of the explosion is "a mystery to me."

"All leads have proved groundless," he said. "There was nothing explosive in the area where the explosions took place."

The "best information," he said, is that the blast occurred "possibly at the five-inch fuse magazine." He emphasized that this information had not been confirmed.

The big carrier was en route back to Newport, across Narragansett Bay from Quonset Point, on a routine training mission.

Aboard were four squadrons of about 130 men each which make up Air Task Group 181, based at the Ocean Naval Air Station near Norfolk. Va. The squadron boarded the Bennington last weekend.

The blast shook the Bennington just after the first of the four squadrons had been launched a common practice aboard carriers nearing air bases.

"Realizing a serious catastrophe occurred we launched the rest of the air group to free the decks for casualty control," Raborn said.

The planes, many of them jets, took off for Quonset as surface craft and helicopters were summoned by radio.

News Briefs

WASHINGTON (UP)—Sen. John L. McClellan, (D-Ark.), began a three-year term today as director and board chairman of the National Rivers and Harbors Congress.

The Congress, a private organization of considerable influence, closed its 41st annual meeting here yesterday. McClellan was succeeded as president by U.S. Rep. Overton Brooks, (D-La.).

The senior senator from Arkansas and J. C. Burke, Helena, were elected to three-year terms as directors and at the organization of the board later, McClellan was named chairman.

Nagging backache, loss of pep and energy, headaches and dizziness may be due to slow-down of kidney function. Doctors say good kidney function is very important to good health. When some everyday condition, such as stress and strain, causes this important function to slow down, many folks suffer nagging backache—feel miserable. Minor bladder irritations due to cold or wrong diet may cause getting up nights or frequent passages. Don't neglect your kidneys if these conditions bother you. Try Donu's Pills—a mild diuretic. Used successfully by millions for over 50 years, it's amazing how many times Donu's gives happy relief from these discomforts—helps the 15 million kidney tubes and filters flush out waste. Get Donu's Pills today!

Jean Allen KROGER HOME ECONOMIST

Picnics are fun... even for the cook, if you come prepared. Here are some suggestions for preparing "food for fun".

Cheeshburgers? Pre-season and foil wrap Kroger Ground Beef patties so they'll be all set for grilling on the spot. Kroger Cheese and pre-sliced sandwich buns are already packed for your picnic.

Beverages? Just fill one of those new Arctic picnic jugs with ice cubes and cold water and take along a can of Kroger Concentrated Lemonade. It's the easiest, tastiest lemonade that ever went to a picnic.

Yours for more and merrier picnics.

Six Texans Signed by Porkers

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. — Coach Boyden Wyatt of the University of Arkansas has dipped into football's hotbed of Texas for players.

Wyatt said yesterday that six Texas high school players as well as one from Missouri and a Louisiana player have signed "letters of intent" to enter Arkansas.

Indicating that even more future Razorbacks would come from Texas, Wyatt said "We feel that less than 35 boys are entirely too few for a freshman squad. We think we have lined up a fine group of boys in Arkansas, and we hope to add some good boys from out-of-state to that list.

A signed "letter of intent" prohibits a high school athlete from playing with another school in the same conference.

Wyatt said three of the Texans are John Boles, an all-Texas tackle for two years; Wayne Boles, John's brother and an 185-pound fullback; and end Don Baker, all members of the Terrell (Tex.) high school team that won 28 of 29 games.

Wyatt also named these out-of-state boys as having been signed by Arkansas:

James Hensley, an end from Cassville, Mo.; Lee Taylor, Minn. La., back; John Taylor, 230-pound tackle from Mt. Pleasant, Tex.; Vernal Crow, Big Sandy, Tex., back; and Jim Bode, a center from McCamey, Tex.

Arkansas boys already signed include Don Horton of DeWitt; Jerry Ferguson, Rogers; Pete Covington, McGehee; Stuart Perry and Richard Bennett, Little Rock; and Glenn Wood, Smackover.

From where I sit... by Joe M...

Heard about the government "seedling" the mountains north of here with beavers? They've been dropping them by parachute—in cages that open automatically once they touch the ground.

"Native" beavers were trapped out of those woods in the past few years. And without beaver dams to hold back the water runoff, we've been having flash floods here in the lowlands.

So now we're putting the busy beavers back to work to build dams and protecting them with stricter game laws. Guess that comes under the heading "learning from experience."

From where I sit, an early prevention in beaver hunting a pound of cure. Beaver hunting in town take special permission. They co-operate voluntarily with the Ball-Regulation Board sponsored by the Beavers' industry. They always keep their neat and orderly. They with respect of the whole community being "cager beavers."
